and Allied Literature,*

of the Student Volunteer Move-

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

The books included in this exhibit are mainly missionary in character, though a small proportion of them are only indirectly helpful to the student of missions.

A very few volumes, containing hasty or unfounded criticisms of missionary effort, have been admitted because of their great value in other directions.

The dates following the titles are in most cases those of the original editions and are an index of their freshness or age. The letters "n. d." indicate that the date is not given in the volume.

The price, which is given in most cases, is the list price of the publisher.
